SWEET BRIAR MAY DAY

MAY 4th, 1940
Order of Events

I. "I declare, it's a great huge game of chess that's being played—all over the world—if this is the world at all, you know."

II. "Would you tell me, please," said Alice, a little timidly, "why you are painting those roses?"

III. Said the cat, "Do you play croquet with the Queen today?"

IV. "The Queen of Hearts—she made some tarts—all on a summer's day."

V. "What I was going to say," said the Dodo, in an offended tone, "was, that the best thing to get us dry would be a Caucus Race."

VI. "There's certainly too much pepper in that soup," Alice said to herself, as well as she could for sneezing!

VII. "This here young lady," said the Gryphon to the Mock Turtle, "wants for to know your history."

VIII. "Then turn not pale, beloved Snail—
      Will you, won't you, will you,
      Won't you, will you join the dance?"

IX. "And though the shadow of a sigh
      May tremble through the story,
      It shall not touch, with breath of vale
      The pleasance of our fairy-tale."
