"ONCE UPON A TIME"

there was a beautiful

MAY QUEEN ................. JEAN SOMERVILLE MOLYNEUX

attended by her

CROWN BEARER ....................... ANNETTE AITKEN,

SCEPTRE BEARER ............... SUE ANDERSON TAYLOR, and

GARLAND BEARER ....................... ANN PETESCH.

By her side were the loyal pages:

SENIOR PAGE ....................... ANN MOUNTCASTLE

FRESHMAN PAGES ...................... ELIZABETH CARPER, and . . . .

ANN VENABLE

LADIES OF THE COURT

CATHERINE ARP
KATHARINE BABCOCK
MARY BAILEY
ROSALIE BARRINGER
BARBARA BIRT
LEILA BOOTH
NANCY KEEN BUTTERWORTH
PATRICIA CARLIN
MARGARET CHISHOLM
MARGERY DAVIDSON
SALLY FISHBURN
JACQUELINE GRUBBS
ANN HORRIGAN

PATRICIA LYNAS
CLARA McDONALD
DOROTHY MARKS
MARY LOIS MILLER
BETTY BROOKE MORRIS
NANCY ORD
MARY GREGORY PLUMB
ALICE SANDERS
MARY HUNTER SLOAN
CHARLOTTE SNEAD
MARY STREET
ANN VAN NORDEN
JOANNE WILLIAMS

Yes—"Once Upon A Time"
Makes a lovely rhyme . . .
A dream so sweet and tender . . .
So come along and see
Through the pages happily
The May Day story you'll remember. . .

The time: May Day 1951   The scene: Sweet Briar College
Once Upon A Time there was a gracious Queen who reigned over a beautiful land. One May Day while seated on her throne, attended by her Court, she became troubled as she thought of the unhappiness among men. The Court Dancers, perceiving the good Queen’s pensive mood, wished to entertain her and so presented the well-loved characters of Storyland.

They portrayed the ragged Cinderella, who cheerfully performed her difficult tasks in the house of her cruel stepmother. As Cinderella helped her ungrateful sisters prepare for the Ball, how she wished that she, too, might be able to go! But this could not be... and so, left alone except for her friends, the mice, she fell asleep. Her dreams were filled with the wonderful people of her childhood who came to dance to the merry melodies of life. Goldilocks, Jack and Jill, and Simple Simon, all brightened her slumbers, along with Miss Muffet, Mary Quite Contrary, and Georgie Porgie. Cinderella’s sleep ended with the appearance of her Godmother, who transformed her and took her to the Ball. Here, Cinderella met her Prince, the man of her dreams.

The Queen was pleased with the tale of “Once Upon A Time,” and her concern disappeared, for she had realized that man, if he believes in the beautiful, simple things in life, can live Happily Ever After.
MAY DAY COMMITTEES

Chairman of May Day..................Elisabeth Wallace
Chairman of “Cinderella’s Ball”...........Constance Werly
Chairman of “Gatsby’s Street Dance”.......Lisbeth Gibson
Dances...............................Miss Spies and Gage Bush
Costumes............................Anne Clark and Elizabeth Moore
Decorations.............................Margaret Graves
Publicity.....................................Jane Collins
Figure......................................Marilyn Wellborn
Treasurer.................................Katherine Turner

Committee Heads: Kay Amsden, Kathleen Bailey, Virginia Dunlap, Carol Exnicios, Katherine Guerrant, Georgia Matz, Kirkland Tucker, Courtney Willard.